Asking Price £520,000

Welcome home to Woodvale Crescent - where family life just gets easier.

Picture Sunday mornings by the wood-burning stove, weeknight dinners in a kitchen built for gathering, and long summer evenings on the decking with the garden lit up around you. This beautifully presented four-bedroom detached home in one of Bingley's most popular residential pockets has been finished with real care - and it shows in every room.

Step through the welcoming entrance hall and into a living room designed for both quiet nights in and lively get-togethers. At over 23ft long, with striking herringbone flooring, a cosy wood-burning stove and a statement timber-slat media wall, it's the kind of space that pulls everyone in. French doors open through to a generous conservatory - perfect for morning coffee with a view over the garden, or as a sunny spot to unwind whatever the season.

The kitchen/diner is where this home really comes alive: contrasting cabinetry, quality worktops, integrated appliances and elegant brass-effect fittings set the scene for everything from quick breakfasts to relaxed dinner parties, with plenty of room to linger around the table. A handy ground-floor WC keeps busy family mornings running smoothly.

Upstairs, four well-proportioned bedrooms - including two impressively generous doubles - offer everyone their own space to retreat to, alongside a stylish, contemporary family bathroom.

Outside, the lifestyle continues. Established gardens front and back give you room to breathe, with the rear garden a genuine extension of the home - think lawn for the kids or the dog, a seating area for long lunches, and raised decking flowing straight off the conservatory for effortless indoor-outdoor living. A driveway leads to the detached garage, while additional outbuildings house a brilliant utility room and extra storage - the kind of practical flexibility every family appreciates.

This is more than a house - it's a place to actually live well.
