The bungalow has been expertly extended and offers spacious, luxury accommodation with a beautifully landscaped garden with ample off street parking and a garage.

The outstanding family room is at the rear over looking the garden with a range of fitted work tops and cupboards, lantern ceiling, central island, integrated appliances, recessed shelving, feature fireplace with adjustable lighting and by-fold doors. There is also room for a generous dining table and ample space for sofas. The secret utility room is tremendous, offering a hidden area with cupboard units, sink and plumbing for appliances.

Directions

From Lymington take the A337 main road towards Christchurch. On arriving in Everton, take the road on the right after the village green and follow the road round to the left in front of The Crown pub. Take the next turning on the right into Wainsford Road and after about 300 yards turn right into Buckstone Close where the property will be found half way along on the right hand side.

Both Lymington and Brockenhurst afford fine schooling (both state and private) with the latter having a tertiary college

Grounds & Gardens

The front of the bungalow has been landscaped with parking for several cars, plus a garage with light and power and side access to the impressive lawned garden, with an extended patio area ideal for alfresco dining, fence borders, raised beds and a wooden shed.

Situation

Positioned at the end of a peaceful no through road and within an easy walk of the village shop and pub the house occupies an extremely appealing position. Everton is a popular village which sits within easy reach of nearby swimming beaches at Milford and the New Forest national park to the north. The market town of Lymington lies 3 miles to the east and has a busy High Street as well as being a renowned centre for sailing. New Milton, just 4 miles to the west has a mainline railway station offering direct services to London Waterloo in under two hours.
