Tynant Abermeurig, Abermeurig, Lampeter, SA48 8PR

Asking Price £275,000

Tynant is a delightful 3 bed Grade II Listed cottage of part stone and part cob construction, in the sought-after rural village of Abermeurig, believed to date in part from the 17th century and formerly serving as the village smithy. Full of character and period features, the property offers spacious and versatile accommodation, although in need of some sympathetic renovation. The property is surrounded by the beautiful West Wales countryside and within easy reach of Lampeter and the Ceredigion coast. The captivating, well-stocked gardens provide a wonderful sense of seclusion, with an impressive Monkey Puzzle Tree, established planting and various seating areas. A further garden across the lane occupies the former site of the village smithy, adding to the property's unique heritage.

A rare opportunity to acquire a characterful historic home in an idyllic rural setting.

Location

Abermeurig is a peaceful rural community in Ceredigion, surrounded by rolling countryside and farmland. The property enjoys a tranquil setting whilst being conveniently positioned for access to Lampeter, Aberaeron and the wider West Wales area. The area is particularly appealing to those looking for a quieter rural lifestyle, with the beautiful Ceredigion coastline and Cardigan Bay within easy travelling distance.
