Location

Fold Terrace offers countryside charm and everyday convenience. Surrounded by beautiful Staffordshire Moorlands scenery, the village is well known for its welcoming community atmosphere, picturesque canal walks and access to the Churnet Valley, making it ideal for those who enjoy outdoor pursuits and a quieter pace of life.

Cheddleton benefits from a range of local amenities including shops, pubs, schools and a railway station on the heritage Churnet Valley Railway, while the nearby market town of Leek provides a wider selection of independent retailers, supermarkets, restaurants and leisure facilities. Excellent road links also make commuting to Stoke-on-Trent and surrounding areas straightforward.

Residents can enjoy scenic walks along the Caldon Canal, nearby woodland trails and easy access to the Peak District National Park, offering endless opportunities for walking, cycling and exploring the countryside. Combining village living with excellent local amenities and stunning surroundings, 5 Fold Terrace is a wonderful place to call home.
