About The Property

Looking for a modern three-bedroom home in a popular village, with countryside views and the coast within easy reach? Built in 2020, this well-presented semi-detached house offers a spacious living/dining room, en-suite principal bedroom, landscaped rear garden and off-road parking for up to three vehicles, all within walking distance of the centre of Cilgerran.

Built in 2020 and positioned within the small development of Maes Rheithordy, this modern three-bedroom semi-detached house offers a practical and well-presented home in the popular Pembrokeshire village of Cilgerran. Set towards the end of a cul-de-sac, the property enjoys views across the surrounding countryside from the rear and combines modern accommodation with a landscaped garden and generous off-road parking.

The property is approached across a paved frontage, with a canopied entrance porch providing access into the hallway. From here, doors lead to the kitchen, WC/utility and living room, with stairs rising to the first floor.

The kitchen is positioned at the front of the house and has a clean, contemporary finish, with a range of white wall and base units complemented by wood-effect work surfaces and tiled splashbacks. There is an electric oven with hob and extractor above, an integrated dishwasher, space for a fridge/freezer and a one-and-a-half bowl sink positioned beneath the front window. The oil-fired boiler is also housed within the kitchen.

Across the hallway is the useful ground-floor WC/utility. This has been designed to make good use of the space, incorporating a WC and wash hand basin set into a work surface, together with space and plumbing below for a washing machine.

Offers in the region of £260,000

Details continued:

Occupying much of the rear of the house is the living/dining room, a particularly good-sized everyday living space measuring approximately 4.93m x 4.40m. There is plenty of room to arrange separate seating and dining areas, while French doors open directly onto the rear garden. This connection with the outside works particularly well during the warmer months and allows the garden to become a natural extension of the living space. A useful under-stairs cupboard provides additional storage.

From the hallway, the staircase rises to the first-floor landing, where there is access to all three bedrooms, the family bathroom and additional storage.

Bedroom one is positioned at the front of the property and is a comfortable king-sized room with its own en-suite shower room. The en-suite comprises a double shower enclosure, WC and wash hand basin, along with a heated towel rail.

The remaining two bedrooms are positioned towards the rear of the house and enjoy an outlook across the garden towards the countryside beyond. Bedroom two provides another useful bedroom and is currently arranged as a home office, demonstrating the flexibility of the accommodation for anyone working from home. Bedroom three incorporates a built-in double bed frame.

Completing the first floor is the modern family bathroom, fitted with a bath and shower above, WC and wash hand basin, with part-tiled walls and a heated towel rail.

Externally
Outside, the property benefits from particularly useful parking. A brick-paved driveway extends along the side of the house with space for two vehicles, while the paved frontage provides space for a further vehicle.

A gated pathway leads around the side of the property into the enclosed rear garden. This has been thoughtfully landscaped to create an attractive but relatively straightforward outside space to look after. Raised timber flower beds bring plenty of colour to the garden, complemented by areas of crushed slate, a central lawn and several places for outdoor furniture.

There is a decked seating area as well as a further gravelled seating space, giving a choice of spots for sitting outside, eating outdoors or entertaining. Timber fencing encloses the garden, while a screened section houses the oil tank. French doors from the living room open straight onto the garden, making the layout particularly practical for day-to-day family life and summer gatherings.

One of the property's additional advantages is its position within Cilgerran. Although part of a modern development, the rear outlook reaches beyond neighbouring gardens towards the surrounding green countryside, giving the house a more open feel than might initially be expected from its cul-de-sac setting.

Overall, this is a well-balanced modern home that should appeal to a range of buyers, particularly those looking for a property that is ready to move into without taking on a major renovation project. The combination of three bedrooms, two bathrooms, a good-sized living/dining room, landscaped garden, countryside outlook and parking for up to three vehicles makes it a particularly practical option, while the village setting keeps Cardigan and the coast close at hand.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE AREA:

Cilgerran is an established village on the banks of the River Teifi, approximately 3.8 miles from the historic market town of Cardigan. The village has a strong community feel and a useful selection of everyday amenities, including local shops, a primary school and village hall, while Cilgerran Castle and the river are reminders of the area's long history. The River Teifi is popular for walking, fishing and water-based activities, and the village is particularly well known locally for its traditional coracle racing.

The nearby Welsh Wildlife Centre and Teifi Marshes provide miles of walking routes and access towards Cardigan, while the wider area opens up plenty of opportunities for exploring the countryside and coast. Cardigan provides supermarkets, independent shops, cafés, restaurants, pubs, schools and healthcare facilities, while the beaches and coastal villages around Cardigan Bay are within comfortable driving distance. It makes Cilgerran a useful base for enjoying both rural Pembrokeshire and the West Wales coastline without being far from the services of a busy market town.
