DESCRIPTION

Brown and Cockerill are delighted to offer for sale this two bedroom semi detached property which is in need of modernisation and is located in the popular residential area of Bilton, Rugby. The property is of standard brick built construction with a tiled roof and benefits from mains services being connected, with the exception of gas.

There are a comprehensive range of amenities available within the immediate area to include a parade of local shops and stores, public houses, churches of several denominations and excellent schooling for all ages.

The property is conveniently situated for commuter access to the Midland motorway and road networks with Rugby railway station operating a regular intercity mainline service to Birmingham New Street and London Euston within the hour.

The accommodation is set over two floors and in brief, comprises of an entrance porch giving access to the entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor landing. There is a lounge and separate dining room and kitchen with space and plumbing for appliances and a door to the rear garden. The ground floor bathroom has a separate w.c.

To the first floor, the landing has doors off to two well-proportioned bedrooms.

The property benefits from electric heating.

Externally, to the front is a generously sized fore garden which is laid to lawn and enclosed by a low level brick wall and garden gates. There is a dropped curb giving potential to create off road parking. The rear garden is in need of cultivation and is enclosed by timber fencing to the boundaries.

Early viewing is highly recommended and the property is being offered for sale with no onward chain.
