No Onward Chain! The coastal setting of West Cross offers a relaxed blend of everyday convenience and seaside living, with the promenade, beaches and village atmosphere of Mumbles within easy reach. Local cafés, shops and schools are close by, while the surrounding coastline and countryside provide plenty of opportunity for walking and enjoying the wider Gower landscape. Swansea city centre is also readily accessible, making this a well placed home for those seeking a balance between coastal surroundings and urban connections.

Set on a plot of approximately 0.02 acres, this three bedroom end of terrace property extends to around 1,158 sq ft and enjoys glimpses across Swansea Bay from both the lounge and kitchen. The accommodation is thoughtfully arranged over two levels, with the lower ground floor providing three bedrooms alongside a family bathroom. Upstairs, the first floor creates a comfortable setting for day to day living, comprising a lounge, kitchen and cloakroom.

The elevated position and sea glimpses bring a pleasing sense of connection with the coast, while the practical layout offers flexibility for modern family life. A well positioned home in a popular West Cross setting, with the beaches, cafés and amenities of Mumbles close at hand and the wider Gower Peninsula within easy reach.
